Disclaimer: *The intended audience of this medical claims payment policy is health care providers who treat Humana members. This policy is made available to provide information on certain Humana claims payment policies. This policy is a guideline only and does not constitute medical advice, guarantee of payment, plan pre-authorization, an explanation of benefits, or a contract. This policy does not govern whether a procedure is covered under a specific member plan or policy, nor is it intended to address every claim situation. Claims may be affected by other factors, such as: state and federal laws and regulations, provider contract terms, and our professional judgment. This policy is subject to change or termination by Humana. Humana has full and final discretionary authority for its interpretation and application. No part of this policy may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted, in any shape or form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying or otherwise without express written permission from Humana. Medicare Advantage Payment Policy

In addition to the policy, claims payments are subject to other plan requirements for the processing and payment of claims, including, but not limited to, requirements of medical necessity and reasonableness and applicable referral or authorization requirements.

Unless Humana policy or guidance directs otherwise, Humana requires providers to bill codes and other claims data according to the following:

1. Applicable Original Medicare and Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) guidance, if any; or
2. Otherwise, the applicable industry standard established by the appropriate authority. Examples include:
   - Current Procedural Terminology (CPT) coding standards by the American Medical Association (AMA);
   - 837 electronic transaction standards by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) X12;
   - International Classification of Diseases, Tenth Revision, Clinical Modifications (ICD-10-CM) coding standards by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC); and
   - Standards for reporting institutional claims by the National Uniform Billing Committee (NUBC).
