Disclaimer: The intended audience of this medical claims payment policy is healthcare providers who treat Humana members. This policy is made available to provide information on certain Humana claims payment policies. This policy is a guideline only and does not constitute medical advice, guarantee of payment, plan pre-authorization, an explanation of benefits, or a contract. This policy does not govern whether a procedure is covered under a specific member plan or policy, nor is it intended to address every claim situation. Claims may be affected by other factors, such as: state and federal laws and regulations, provider contract terms, and our professional judgment. This policy is subject to change or termination by Humana. Humana has full and final discretionary authority for its interpretation and application. No part of this policy may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted, in any shape or form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying or otherwise without express written permission from Humana. Overview

Electronic claim submission, reimbursement and electronic remittance advice (ERA) transactions are less costly than paper-based transactions for both providers and payers. The majority of payer reimbursement to providers in the United States are conducted using electronic means, and the healthcare industry continues to move toward the elimination of paper transactions.

Medicare Advantage and Medicaid Payment Policy

In addition to the policy, claims payments are subject to other plan requirements for the processing and payment of claims, including, but not limited to, requirements of medical necessity and reasonableness and applicable referral or authorization requirements.

Humana encourages electronic transactions for claim submission, reimbursement and explanation of remittance advice.
