Disclaimer: The intended audience of this medical claims payment policy is healthcare providers who treat Humana members. This policy is made available to provide information on certain Humana claims payment policies. This policy is a guideline only and does not constitute medical advice, guarantee of payment, plan pre-authorization, an explanation of benefits, or a contract. This policy does not govern whether a procedure is covered under a specific member plan or policy, nor is it intended to address every claim situation. Claims may be affected by other factors, such as: state and federal laws and regulations, provider contract terms, and our professional judgment. This policy is subject to change or termination by Humana. Humana has full and final discretionary authority for its interpretation and application. Overview

The use of electronic payments and remittances reduces the administrative costs associated with paper checks and remittances, eliminates the risk of lost paper mail, enables easier reconciliation of payments and provides quicker access to funds.

This policy establishes Humana's transaction fee for paper checks.

In addition to the policy, claims payments are subject to other plan requirements for the processing and payment of claims, including, but not limited to, requirements of medical necessity and reasonableness and applicable referral or authorization requirements.

Humana encourages providers to elect electronic claims payment options rather than paper checks. Humana offers electronic funds transfer (EFT) and virtual credit card (VCC) programs. To learn more about these programs, visit Humana's electronic claims payment website available in the References section of this policy.

Humana assesses a fee of $5.00 for each envelope containing a paper check for medical claims reimbursement. This only applies when an envelope contains a paper check for an amount equal to or greater than $5.00.
